BACKGROUND

Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi is a vibrant and exciting tertiary education institution providing a dynamic learning environment where students can discover their own potential for educational success. Our programmes are designed to ensure academic excellence – we are benchmarking our programmes against those of other institutions and lifting the bar on standards. As we lift our research capacity, ongoing programme re-development will be informed by best practice.

As a Wānanga, Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi is charged with delivering tertiary programmes grounded in Kaupapa Māori and Āhuatanga Māori. This means that Māori knowledge and practices are central components to the academic programmes, engagement in PLD projects, teaching delivery and student experiences. Tikanga Māori and Te Reo Māori are central to the way in which we operate and are reflected across Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi in our programmes and practices. While some of our programmes have a high level of Māori language emphasis, others are designed to support new and emerging language learners.

Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi further provides programmes that are portable and transferable both nationally and internationally. Therefore, it is important that we explore and integrate the World view of both Māori and other indigenous peoples and engage in and critique the world views of others.

Transformative approaches to educational achievement are a cornerstone of our broad and unique programme offerings, as we focus on providing an education that will encourage and support community development and growth, enable educational portability for our students both within Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi and the wider tertiary sector.

Operations are based at three locations – Whakatāne, Tāmaki Makaurau (Auckland) and Wairoa, with a Northland (Te Taitokerau) site yet to be finalised. We also deliver on marae across the Te Ika a Maui (North Island).

School of Iwi Development

The School of Iwi Development's goal is to facilitate te whakapakaritanga me te hiki i te mātauranga o te iwi Marae i roto o Aotearoa. Its role is to bring hapū members together to learn about themselves, and to provide a stairway to higher learning. As the school's students are predominantly second-chance learners, every effort is made to meet their needs and provide the necessary support. This may include helping prepare prospective students to meet entry requirements for a course of study.

Community Education programmes are run at marae, allowing students to benefit from the direct support of whānau, iwi and marae members. Courses are designed to ensure students achieve and progress to the next level of study. As they negotiate this clear, established pathway to degree-level study, students gain confidence and are ready for the challenge. At this time the programmes offered by the School of Iwi Development include Certificates in Kai Oranga and Wai Ora, Adult Community Education, Te Pouhono, Te Pōkaitahi Reo, and Bachelors of Matauranga Māori.
